While art has played an important role in my life since as long as I can remember, this will be the first time I am actively seeking to pursue this as a fulltime occupation alongside my filmmaking. It's an exciting step to explore my love for painting and to see how far I can take it. I've divided the site into smaller sections - each one a theme, one that I wish to pursue over the course of the year. some pages are already full of artworks, others are still work in progress, any artworks that are in line with any of the themes will eventually be placed in its respective page. I hope you enjoy following my journey - you may want to follow my work on instagram as I explore these themes in more depth.
